NOTES OF THE TURF.

The Dill starting machine is being used at Lexington.

After the Kentucky Derby, Mr. M. F. Dwyer $7500 for Ben Eder. The offer was declined.

John Rodegap's colt Sumatra by Vocalic—La Sorella died at Lexington a day or two ago.

Dunoi is doing well again and will carry the Scoggin colors again in the races of the next ten days.

Aqueduct sought the off days of the Morris Park meeting—the Mondays and Fridays between May 12 and June 2.

Bill McGuigan is preparing Ben Eder for a bruising race for the Clark Stakes, and says that he will bet on Ben Eder defeating Ben Brush.

The application for reinstatement made by R. J. Hutchison and Jockey J. B. Slack were refused.

THE FLAG SAVES EVANATUS.

Owing to one or two horses being left at the post recently at Sheffield, the advance flag was called into requisition yesterday as well as the machine. It was just as well that it was, for, in the mile handicap, the first time the machine snapped Evanatus, with Dorsey up, wheeled around exactly as he had done with Irving last Saturday, and he would have been left had not the horses been recalled. As it was he got off last, but, running kindly, won, beating Hi Henry easily, the son of Big Henry astonishing his friends by his game finish over a distance supposed to be not his forte.

The day was warm, attendance large, and the track fast. Two Indiana records, the mile of 1:42½ and the five furlongs of 1:01½ were equalled by Evanatus and Remedy respectively. Only two favorites, Pinchback in the first and Outgo in the last races won. All the other winners were backed. There were only eleven regular books and two field books on, but they did a good business. Irving rode two winners.

Pinchback had only a poor lot to beat in the opening event and he won easily.

In the 2-year-old race the starting machine was dispensed with as neither Terrific or Aceta had ever been to the post or even been schooled at starting. Terrific was made a warm favorite but two of Tully Coulter's recently sold to Cella & Sippy and Ruddy Bros. finished first and second. Mike Kelly was the favorite for the six furlongs selling, but he was not in the first three, Warren Point winning in a drive from Denizette and Paskola.

May Fern who appeared in John Brenock's colors for the first time, was favorite in the five furlongs. The second was the best she could do, Remedy racing over her all the way.

The last event at seven furlongs was a gallop for Outgo. He might have been pressed had the start been a better one, Belvoir getting off very badly.
